Verses for the Feast:

(8) I see a strange and won - der - ful mys - te - ry: the Cave is heav - en;

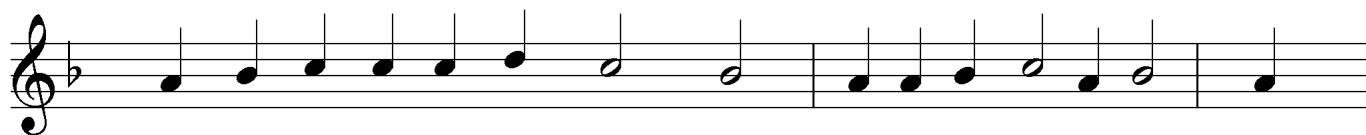

the Vir - gin the Throne of the Cher - ub - im; the Man - ger the Place in which is laid Christ, the God whom noth - ing can con - tain: him we praise and mag - ni - fy.

(7) When the Ma - gi saw the strange course of an un - us - u - al, new and new - ly shin - ing star, shin - ing more bright - ly than an - y - thing in heaven, they learnt that Christ the King was born on earth in Beth - le - hem for our sal - va - - - - tion.

(6) The Ma - gi said: "Where is the new - born Child and King, whose star we have seen? For we have come to wor - ship him." Her - od, the en - e - my of God was troub - led, and in his mad - ness plot - ted how to kill Christ.

(5) Her - od in - quired the time of the star, which led the Ma - gi to Beth - le - hem to wor - ship Christ with gifts. By that same star they were led back to their own land, mock - ing the wick - ed mur - der - er of child - - ren.

(4) It would be eas - i - er for us, be - cause free from all dan - ger, to keep si - lence in fear; while it is hard in - deed, O Vir - gin, in love to dev - ise songs har - mon - i - ous - ly put to - geth - er. But, O Moth - er, give us strength that so we may ful - fil our in - tent.

(3) It would be eas - i - er for us, be - cause free from all dan - ger, to keep si - lence in fear; while it is hard in - deed, O Vir - gin, in love to dev - ise songs har - mon - i - ous - ly put to - geth - er. But, O Moth - er, give us strength that so we may ful - fil our in - tent.

(Glory)

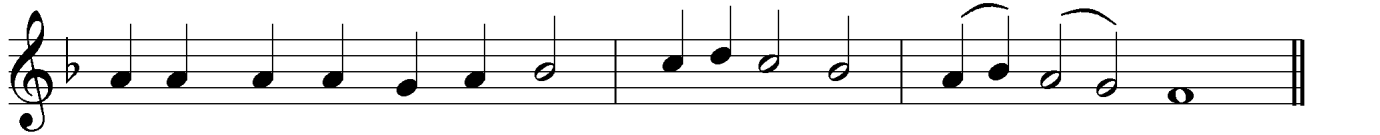

(2) Pure Moth - er, we have seen fig - ures of the Word that have no light and shad - ows of the past; and now that he has new - ly ap - peared from the closed gate, we who are count - ed wor - thy to be - hold the light of truth, as is fit - ting, bless your womb.

(Both now)

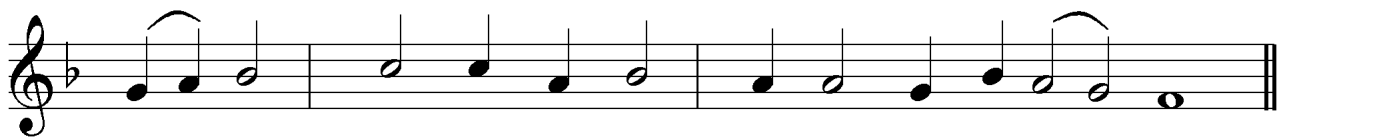

(1) The peo - ple that de - lights in Christ has at - tained its de - sire, be - ing count - ed wor - thy of the com - ing of God, and now they hum - bly pray for the re - gen - er - a - - - tion that gives life. O Pure Vir - - gin, grant them the grace to wor - ship his com - - ing.
