

September 1st. Indiction. St Symeon the Stylite.

On the Beatitudes, sing 8 verses.

First, 4 verses for the Indiction, Tone 1:

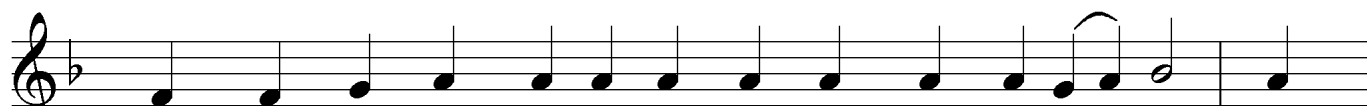

[8] Es - ab - lish, O Good One, the fruit - ful vine - yard, which your right hand has plant - ed with love up - on the earth, pre - serv - ing your Church, O All - pow - er - ful.

[7] Grant, Lord, that those who in faith sing your praise, O Mas - ter, may pass through this year which is be - gin - ning a - bound - ing in spir - it - u - al works, well - pleas - ing to God, O God of the u - ni - verse.

[6] Let the cir - cle of the year be calm for me, O mer - ci - ful Christ, and fill me with your di - vine words which you re - vealed speak - ing to the Jews on the Sab - - bath.

[5] As the one who a - lone sur - pas - sing na - - - ture re - ceived the grace that sur - pas - ses man - kind, and gave birth to Christ our God, who dwelt un - al - tered in your womb, we ev - er glo - ri - fy you.

Then 4 verses for Saint Symeon, Tone 8:

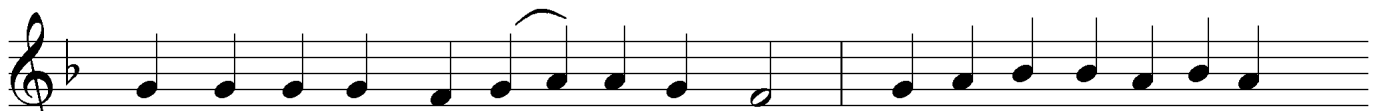

[4] O bless - ed one, Christ dis - played you as a work - er of signs and won - - ders, hav - ing shown you to be a dwell - ing place of di - vine force.

[3] O Sym - e - on, your bod - - y was raised on the pil - lar as on a cross; there - fore you have been glo - ri - fied with Christ who was raised on a tree for your sake.
