

On the Beatitudes, Sunday Tone 2

(Greek Chant)

8 verses

(8) We of - fer you the voice of the thief and cry a - - loud to you:

Re - mem - ber us, O Lord, in your king - - - - dom.

(7) We bring you the Cross for the for - give - ness of of - fenc - - es, for you ac - cept - ed it for us, O Lov - er of man - kind.

(6) We ven - er - ate, O Mas - ter, your tomb and ris - - ing, through which you have de - liv - ered the world from cor - rup - tion, O Lov - er of man - kind.

(5) By your death, O Lord, death has been swal - lowed up, and by your Res - ur - rec - tion, O Sav - iour, the world has been saved.

(4) Ris - - en from the tomb you met the wom - en bear - - ing myrrh, and told the Dis - ci - ples to pro - claim your ris - - ing.

(3) Those sleep - ing in dark - - ness have seen you, the light, and they have ris - en out of the low - est parts of Hell, O Christ.

(Glory)

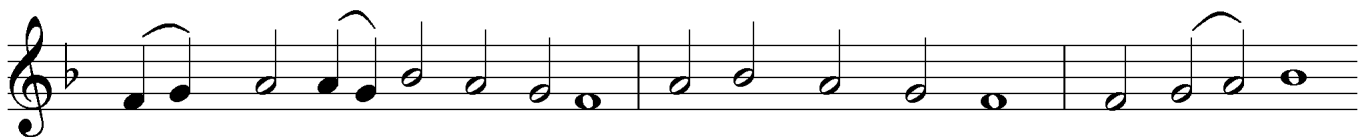

(2) Let us all glo - - ri - fy the Fa - - ther, wor - ship the Son, and faith - ful - ly sing the prais - es of the Ho - ly Spir - - it.

(Both now)

(1) Hail, throne in the form of fire; Hail, un - wed - ded bride; Hail, Vir - - gin, who has con - ceived God for man.