

Saturday of Lazarus

On the Beatitudes, sing 8 verses in Tone 8

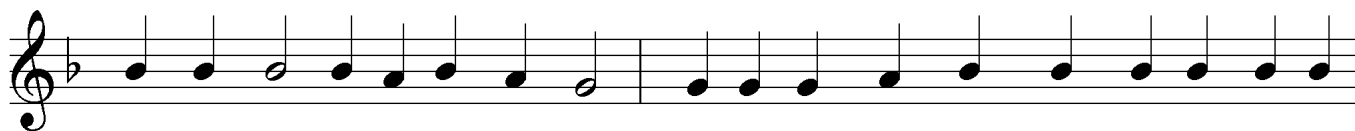

(8) Dis - play - ing your two en - er - gies, O Sav - - iour, you made man - i - fest your two na - - - tures: for you are both God and man.

(7) Though you are the A - byss of know - ledge, you ask where they have laid the bod - y of Laz - a - ros. For it was your pur - pose, O Giv - er of life, to raise him from the dead.

(6) Go - ing from one place to an - oth - - - er, as mor - tal you ap - peared cir - cum - scribed; but as God un - cir - cum - scribed you fill

all things.

(5) At your di - vine word, you raised Laz - a - ros, O Christ. I pray you, raise me al - - - so, dead through my man - y sins.

(4) Love led you, O Mas - ter, to Laz - a - ros at Beth - a - ny; and as God

you raised him, though his corpse al - read - y stank, and de - liv - ered him from the bonds of hell.

(3) Mar - tha de - spaired when she saw Laz - a - ros al - read - y four days dead.

But Christ, as God, raised him from de - cay and brought him back to life by his word.

(Glory)

(2) As true God you knew of the fall - ing a - sleep of Laz - a - ros and an - nounced it be - fore - hand to your dis - ci - - - ples, giv - ing them a proof, O Mas - ter, of the in - fi - nite pow - er of your di - - - vin - i - ty.

(Both now)

(1) You, who are by na - ture un - - cir - cum - scribed, were cir - cum - scribed

in the flesh; com - ing to Beth - a - ny, O Mas - ter, as man you weep

o - ver Laz - a - ros, and by your pow - er as God you raise him on the fourth day from the dead.
