

Saturday of the Dead (Meatfare)

On the Beatitudes sing 8 verses in Tone 8:

(8) To those who have passed through the course of life in the glo - ry of the faith, grant a crown of right - eous - ness, O God, and count them wor - thy to en - joy e - ter - nal bless - ings.

(7) To those who have been sud - den - ly snatched a - - - way, burnt up by light - ning, froz - en by the cold, or struck down by an - y oth - er ca - lam - - i - - - ty, give rest, O God, when you make tri - al of all things in the fire.

(6) To those who have sailed a - cross the ev - er - trou - bled sea of this earth - ly life steered by the Or - tho - dox faith, grant a safe an - chor - age,

O Christ, in the har - bour of im - mor - tal life with you.

(5) Those whom the crea - tures of the sea or the birds of the air have de - voured, O Christ our God, raise up in glo - - - ry on the Last Day, as you judge right.

(4) Auth - or of life, by your Pas - - sion you have loosed the pains of death:

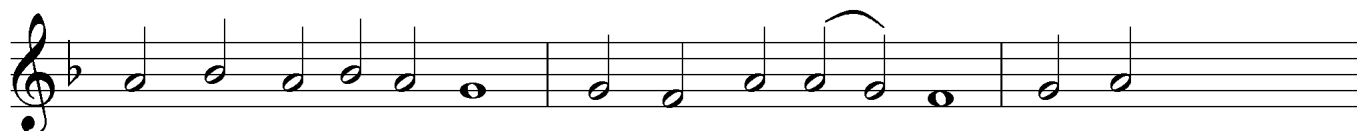

give rest, our God, to your ser - - vants who have fal - - len a - sleep from the be - gin - - - - - ning of time.

(3) To those whom in your in - eff - a - ble prov - i - dence you have per - mit - ted to be killed by drugs or pois - - on, or through chok - - ing on bones, give rest, O Lord, with your saints.

(Glory)

(2) Thrice ho - ly God - head, one in throne, Fa - ther, Son and Spir - - it, you are my God, hold - ing all in u - ni - ty by your al - - - might - y

Power.

(Both now)

(1) Leap for joy, Jes - se the fore - fa - ther; from your root has sprung

the Flow - er of Life who saves the world, Christ our God, born from the pure Maid - en.
