

September 1st. Indiction. St Symeon the Stylite

Troparion for the Indiction, Tone 2

Fash - ion - er of all cre - a - tion, who fix times and sea - sons by your own au - thor - i - - - ty, bless the crown of the year with your good - ness,

Lord, pre - serv - ing in peace your faith - ful peo - ple and your cit - - - - y, at the prayers of the Moth - er of God, and save us.

Troparion to the Mother of God, Tone 1

Hail, full of grace, Vir - gin Moth - er of God, har - bour and pro - tec - tion of the hu - man race; for from you the Re - deem - er of the world be - came in - car - nate; for you a - lone are Moth - er and Vir - gin, ev - er bless - ed and most glo - ri - fied. In - ter - cede with Christ God to grant peace to the whole in - hab - it - ed world.

Troparion for the Saint, Tone 1.

You be - came a pil - lar of en - dur - ance, O Ven - er - a - ble One, ri - - - val - ling the fore - fa - thers: Job in suf - fer - ings and Jo - seph in tri - als, and while still in the bod - y, the life of the Bod - i - less

Powers. Sym - - e - on, our Fa - ther, in - ter - cede with Christ God that our souls may be saved.

Kontakion of the Saint, Tone 2

Seek - ing things a - bove you joined those on high, and made your pil - lar a char - i - ot of fire, through which you have be - come a com - pan - ion of the An - gels, O Ven - er - a - ble One, with them im - plor - ing Christ God with - out ceas - ing on be - half of us all.

Kontakion of the Indiction, Tone 2

Christ the King, who live in the high - est, Cre - a - tor and Mak - er of all things vis - i - ble and in - vis - i - - - ble, who fash - ioned days and nights, sea - sons and years: bless now the crown of the year, pre - serve and keep in peace faith - ful rul - ers, your cit - y and peo - ple,

O great - ly mer - ci - ful One.