

(I) Praise the Lord, all you na - tions; praise him, all you peo - - - ples.

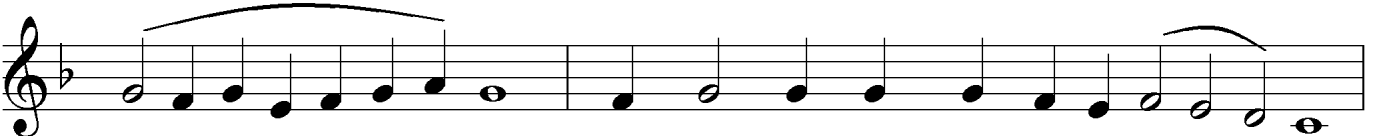

O bless - ed hier - arch Mel - et - - - - - i - os, when you had stud - ied the law of the Lord, as is writ - - - - ten you showed your - self to be a tree stand - ing by the wa - ters of fast - - - - - ing, and bring - ing forth fruits of the vir - - - - - tues by the grace of him who en - light - ened your ho - - - - - ly soul, and made you the re - cip - - - - - i - ent of all spir - it - u - al ra - - - di - ance.

(II) For his mer - cy has been might - y to - wards us; and the truth of the Lord en - dures to the ag - - - - - es.

As is writ - ten, O All - wise One, your cheeks were a - dorned like tur - tle - doves, O Mel - et - - - - i - os, lov - ing ab - sti - nence and fore - go - ing de - light, de - sir - ing the spir - - - - it - u - al de - light which Christ gave to you when you un - der - took your man - y la - - - - - bours, and dis - played a burn - - - - - ing zeal, suf - fer - ing trib - u - la - tion for the sake of the faith.

Theotokion:

(I) Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

As you make un - tir - ing sup - pli - ca - - - - - tion and in - sist - ent en - treat - - - - - y be - fore God, O all - pure one, quell the temp - ta - - - - - tions and still the waves of my wretch - - - - - ed soul; calm my heart, which is af - flict - - - - - ed,

I be - seech you, O Maid - - - - - en, and bring grace to my mind, so that I may glo - ri - fy you as is fit - - - - - ting.

Stavrotheotokion:

(I) Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

When the Ewe - lamb who bore you saw you, the Lamb and Shep - - - - - herd on the Tree, she grieved, and as a moth - er cried a - loud to you: "O long - suf - fer - ring and dear - - - - - ly loved Son, how have you been hung on the Tree of the Cross? O Word, how have your hands and feet been pierced with nails by the un - god - - - - - ly? And, O Mas - ter, how have you shed your blood?"
