

(II) The just will a - wait me: un - til you re - ward me.

By be - ing nailed of your own will to the Tree of the Cross, O Sav - - iour, you a - - - bol - ished the pen - - - al - ty of the tree of dis - o - be - - - - - di - ence; and by de - - - scend - ing in - - - to Hell, O Pow - - - - - - - - - - er - - - ful One, you tore a - - - part the bonds of death as God; there - - fore we wor - ship your Res - - ur - - - rec - - - tion from the dead, as we cry out with joy: "All - - pow - - - - - er - - - ful Lord, glo - - - - - ry to you."

(1) Out of the depths I have cried to you, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

You shat - - - - - tered the gates of Hell, O Lord, and by your death you de - - stroyed the king - dom of death, and you freed the hu - man race from cor - - rup - - - - - tion, grant - ing the world life and in - - - cor - - rup - - - - - tion, and great mer - - - - - cy.

(I) If you, Lord, should mark in - i - qui - ties, O Lord, who will stand? But there is for - give - ness with you.

O Sav - iour, an - gels and hu - - mans hymn your Ris - - - - - ing on the third day, through which the ends of the in - - hab - - it - ed world were filled with light, and we were all re - - - deemed from the slav - er - - - y of the foe, as we cry: "Life - giv - - - - - ing, all - - pow - er - ful

Sav - - - - iour, save us by your Res - ur - - - rec - - - - tion, on - ly lov - - - - er of man - kind."

(II) For your name's sake I have wait - ed for you, O Lord; my soul has wait - ed on your word, my soul has hoped in the Lord.

You shat - tered the gates of brass, and crushed to pow - der the i -- ron bars, Christ God, and you raised the fall - - en hu - - - - man race; there - - - - - fore with one voice we cry: "Lord, ris - - - - - en from the dead, glo - - - - - ry to you."

(I) From the morn - ing watch un - til night, from the morn - ing watch let

Is - ra - el hope in the Lord.

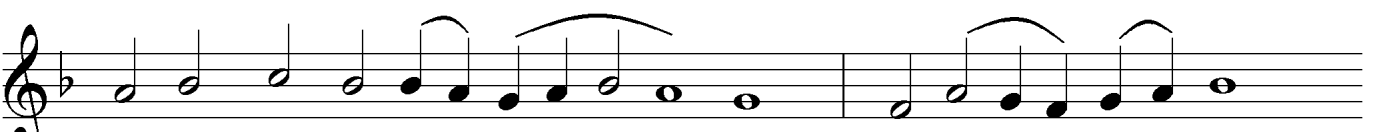

O Lord, your birth from the Fa - - - - - ther is with - out time and e - ter - - - - - nal; your in - - - car - - na - tion from a Vir - - gin is in - - - ex - - press - i - ble for hu - - - - mans and be - yond ex - pla - - na - - - - - tion; and your de - - scent in - to Hell is fear - - - - - ful for the dev - - - - il and his an - - - - - gels; for hav - ing tram - pled on death you rose on the third day, grant - - - - - ing man - kind in - - - cor - - rup - - - - - tion and great mer - - - - - cy.

Both now and for ev - er, and to the ag - es of ag - es. A - men.

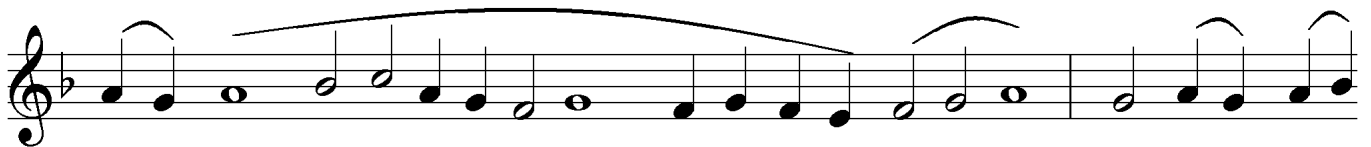

The Proph - et Da - - - - vid, through you the an - - - - ces - tor of God, spoke of you be - fore - - - hand in song to him who has done great things for you: "The Queen stood at your right hand." For Christ, the God who with - out fa - - - - ther was well - - - - pleased to be - - come man from you, de - - - clared you to be moth - er, source of life, so that he, who has great and rich mer - - - - - cy,            might re - fash - - - - - ion            his own im - - - - - age,            cor - - - - - rup - - - - - ted            by            pas - - - - - sions, and hav - ing found the lost sheep            wan - - - - - der - - - - - ing on            the moun - tain            and laid it on            his shoul - - - - - ders,            might bring it            to his

Fa - - - - - ther,            and            by            his own will,            O

Moth - - - - - er            of God,            u - - - - - nite            it to            the heav - en - - - - - ly

Pow - - - - - ers and save the world.

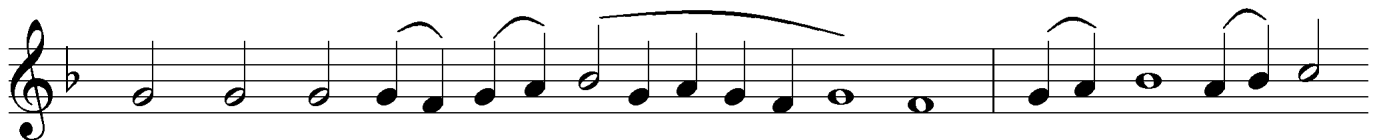

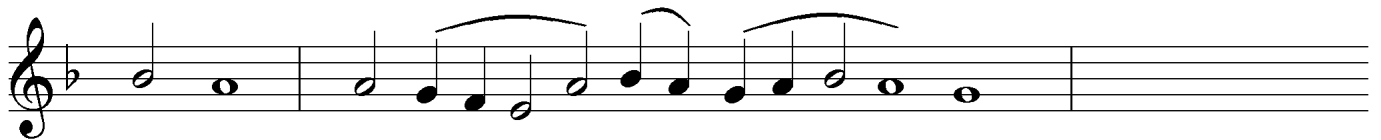

(II) Ho - li - ness be - fits your house, O Lord, to length of days.

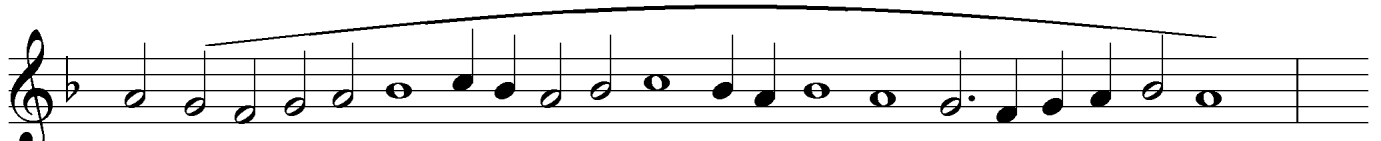

Reach - - ing your grave in tears, the wo - men sought you;

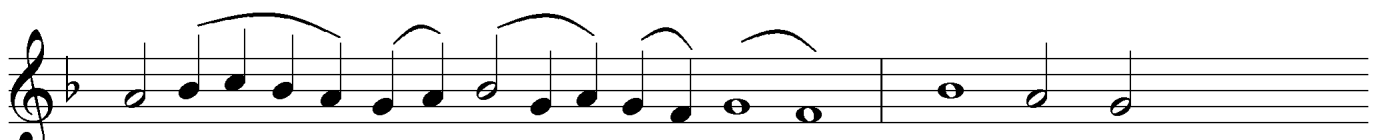

and when they did not find you, they cried a - - loud with grief and lam - - - - - en - - - - - ta - - - - - tion:

"A - las,

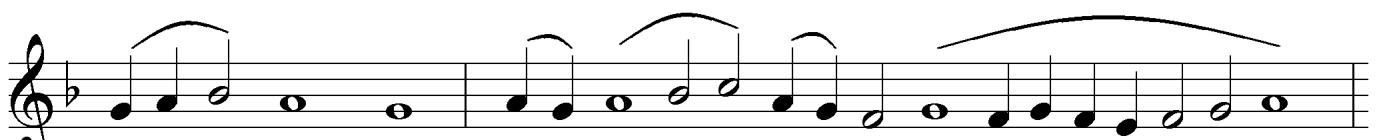

our Sav - - - - - iour, King of all, how were you sto - - - - - len? What sort of place holds your life - - - - - bear - ing bod - - - - - y?" But an An - - - - - gel an - - - - - swered them, and said: "Do not weep, but go, pro - claim that the Lord has ris - - - - en, grant - ing us joy, for he a - - - lone is com - pas - - - - sion - ate."

en - treat          you          not be put to          shame; make haste to hear the sup -- pli --- ca --- tion          of us who cry to          you          with          faith:          "Hail, Sove - reign

La ----- dy,

help,          joy          and pro - tec -- tion of all, and sal -- va - tion of our souls."
